

Curling NB launches new Website

Curling NB has launched a new website and domain name with features that make it easier to access the information you need as well as being “optimized” for mobile devices (tablets and phones). The domain name is now known as curlingnb.com replacing nbcurling.com but the former will still link you to the new site.

New features include:

- Curling NB and Curling Canada news feeds
- Posts from our social media sites on Facebook & Instagram
- New scoreboard using Curling Canada's Curling I/O system
- Drop down menus for locating frequently used information
 - List of Provincial events (Competitions) sorted by category
 - New menu where all our French documents will be located
 - Links to Curling Hall of Fames
- Links to our partners, popular videos and Livestreaming at the bottom
- List of upcoming courses and events along with a PDF copy of the Provincial Events Calendar (for downloading or print)
- Access to our Sponsor websites
- Ability to search for anything using the magnifying glass icon and handy Home button on top menu bar

Laptop view (with location of Home and Search buttons)

- New access for curling clubs to enter their own events with additional information
(Instructions will be sent to curling clubs shortly)

Please take the time to try out our new website and give us your feedback!

Thanks.
