Organization:

The NBCA is responsible to manage the selection of the NB Canada Games men's, women's, and mixed doubles teams. The NBCA has a Canada Games Selection Committee that reports to the NBCA Board of directors. The Committee composition and contact emails are listed above.

Objectives:

The objectives of the Selection Committee are not just the selection of the teams but also to ensure that there is a development program in place that will increase the potential of Team NB winning medals. It is intended that teams and players other than the eventual winners will benefit from the selection process further enhancing the NB Junior development program for the long term good of the sport.

Funding:

Funding is provided, through the New Brunswick Curling Association to the Selection Committee to help cover the cost of operating the Canada Winter Games program. This funding will be used to benefit all teams leading up to and including the Selection events.
